THE TIMES' SPECIALS.

Winnipeg Railway Ramblings—Explanation of Wiman's Late Dispatch.

Secession Dead in Maritime Provinces—An Indian Murderer at Large.

Special to the Times.]

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 2—The lowest price ever given for railroading is in the contract between the Government and G. H. Strevel for grading the first twenty miles of the Morris-Brandon branch—eight cents per yard.

The Hudson Bay Railway Company sent off a party yesterday to explore the country and decide upon the best general route for a railway.

The representatives of the Northern Pacific are here to sign the contract with the Government, which will likely be proclaimed in the next Gazette.

D. McArthur and Col. Scoble are out with letters denying there was ever a corrupt agreement between them and Greenway.

WIMAN'S DESPATCH.

Toronto, Oct. 2—The Empire yesterday made a fierce attack on Erastus Wiman and the advocates of reciprocity. Wiman telegraphed all the Toronto papers that the United States Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs was discussing the annexation of Canada and preparing a resolution calling on the President to open negotiations with Canada for a political union. Later Wiman telegraphed to withhold the dispatch. This the Empire refused to do, and makes the matter the text of an editorial in which the charge is made that the movement for reciprocity is simply a cloak for annexation, which is the real object of the commercial unionists.

Mr. Hickson, General Manager of the Grand Trunk, says the work of double tracking the line between Montreal and Toronto is being pushed, and by next year will be completed half the distance to Gananoque.

MERCIER'S MAGISTRATES COURT.

Quebec, Oct. 2—Senator J. G. Ross died yesterday, aged seventy. He left a fortune estimated from five to ten millions. He was unmarried.

Mercier will abide by the disallowance of his magistrates' court, as he finds he can constitute a similar tribunal under the powers of the old act.

ENDORSING BENCH WARRANTS.

Montreal, Oct. 2—Baxter served Judge Dugas with a writ out of the Superior Court yesterday, prohibiting him from endorsing the Toronto bench warrant. The ground taken is that Barnett not being yet a prisoner no witness can be called in case the writ is returnable on the twenty-first, and judgment on it can be appealed from, through all the higher courts to the privy council.

Ottawa, Oct. 2—Hon. Mr. Longley admits that the secession movement is dead in the maritime provinces. It is killed by the Tory successes at the Federal elections and the movement for commercial union.

BLAINE IN CANADA.

St. Thomas, Oct. 2—Blaine passed through here yesterday. He was met at the depot by a crowd of American and Canadian sympathizers with a band. In a short speech he said he hoped the time would come when the two countries would unite, but the overtures must come from Canada.

DUTY ON REPAIRS.

Algoma Mills, Oct. 2—Three tugs with a full wrecking plant were seized here yesterday, belonging to Murphy, of Detroit, and though registered in Canada, have recently been repaired in the U. S. They will be held for duty to the value of those repairs.

DIED FROM INJURIES.

Whitby, Oct. 2—Young Hurst died of his injuries by the explosion. Gilson is dying.

TROOP SHIP SAILS.

Halifax, Oct. 2—The troop ship Orontes sailed yesterday with the York and Lancaster regiments for Jamaica.

DIED FROM A BLOW.

Corp. J. Clancey died yesterday from the effects of a blow struck as he was on sentry on the night of Sept. 29th. He was never able to explain who struck him.

INDIAN MURDERER.

Edmonton, Oct. 2—Keesekawasis, an Indian thief and murderer, who fled from justice in Canada a few years ago, and for whom the United States now offers a reward, is roaming about the country near here, plundering everybody he thinks weaker than himself.

FROM OTTAWA.

Special to The Times.]

Ottawa, Oct. 3—The Supreme Court to-day, when the election cases against Hon. Mr. Caron and Mr. Cook, M. P., formally dropped, the latter being similar to the Glengarry case, and the former a Quebec county case. The Haldimand election appeal was then taken up.

Bread rose to-day from 11 to 12 cts.

The government has shipped flour to feed the starving Indians in the Peace river district.

Three inches of snow fell in the vicinity of Quebec and the counties west of here to-day.

Mercier issued a proclamation disestablishing the Magistrate's Court voted by the Dominion, and then established an equivalent one, which will meet any legal arguments argued against the former.

FROM VANCOUVER.

A Man Killed by Falling into a Three Foot Ditch.

Special to The Times.]

Vancouver, Oct. 3—About half-past eight last night Henry Hall, a workman laying a water main on Cordova street, fell into a ditch about three feet deep. His head was wedged between the gas main and the wall and falling on his side dislocated his neck. He died within ten minutes. No inquest was held. The deceased was a Norwegian between 40 and 45 years of age.

Yesterday afternoon a man whose name could not be ascertained was assisting a family to move into the Van Horne block. In putting up a bedstead the piece fell, inflicting a serious wound and probably fracturing his skull.

Early this morning the missionary steamer Glad Tidings mistook the electric light of Westminster avenue for the city wharf light and ran ashore. The vessel was uninjured.

SCOTCH HOME RULE.

The Object of the Scotch Home Rule Association.

Mr. Thomas McNaught, Solicitor of the Supreme Court in Edinburgh, Scotland, is in the city, having arrived from San Francisco on Monday. Mr. McNaught is Honorary Colonial Secretary for the Scotch Home Rule Association, and although his visit to this country is largely one of pleasure the time is principally devoted to an exposition of the principles of the association in the hope of enlisting the sympathies of the Scotchmen of this country in behalf of the movement. To a representative of Times Mr. McNaught explained that the association advocated the establishment of a legislature and executive in Scotland for the purpose of managing purely domestic matters while still retaining a voice in the Imperial Parliament for Imperial matters. The motto was equal rights to the four nationalities, but no exceptional legislation; and therefore the advocates of local self-government for Scotland were opposed to Irish home rule as advocated by Gladstone and Parnell. If constitutional change is to take place it must be effected in a constitutional manner. The Gladstone liberals are unwilling to grant home rule to Scotland, because they are loth to lose the noble liberalism of that country in parliament, where they find it indispensable in carrying measures against the conservatives in England. The reply of the association to that is, that if England wants to be ruled by Conservatives they have a right to be. The Imperial Parliament has of late become so completely congested that it is almost impossible to secure the passage of legislation of a local character. Last session of twenty-six Scotch measures introduced only one passed, although all of the twenty-six were backed by the unanimous public opinion of Scotland. Mr. McNaught says Scotland is now ripe for legislation in land, church, education and temperance—the four great questions affecting the welfare of the people—but nothing can be done owing to the cause stated and to the indifference and conservatism of the English representatives. Mr. McNaught may speak before St. Andrew's Society before leaving for the east, and on his return he will lecture to the Scotchmen of New York on the question of home rule. He thinks that if there is ever to be a feasible scheme propounded for the federation of the empire, it will be after a comprehensive system of home rule has been successfully tried and the Imperial Parliament is forever rid of local affairs.

ANOTHER CHARGE.

J. D. Robinson Accused of Being An Accessory With T. Russell.

This morning, before proceeding with the remand case of alleged embezzlement, another charge was laid against J. D. Robinson by Sergt. Sheppard. The information reads "That Thomas Russell, being Collector of Revenue and Treasurer of the City of Victoria, as the informant has just cause to believe and doth believe, on the several dates herein after mentioned did embezzle divers, that is to say, the moneys of the Corporation of the City of Victoria hereinafter particularly set forth, and that James D. Robinson was an accessory after the fact to such embezzlement by the said Thomas Russell:

Jan. 17th, 1881, $245; Feb. 4th, 1881, $50; July 8th, 1881, $245; Aug. 20th, 1881, $45; Sept., 1881, $100; October, $100; December 31st, $30; Feb. 13th, 1882, $10; Jan. 12th, 1883, $245; Jan. 23rd, 1884, $95—total, $1,165

October, 1881, $186; 22nd, $5.52; $300; Dec., 1882, $36; Nov. 23rd, 1882, $100; Nov. 30th, $400; Sept. 10th, 1883, $3; Jan. 2nd, 1884, $250—total, $1,033 24."

McMURDO DISTRICT.

Rich in Minerals—The Opinion of a Miner.

John Hepburn, a practical miner well known in the province, arrived from the interior a few days ago. He spent several months on Jubilee Mountain, of which he has a favorable opinion as a future mining camp. The McMurdo district is twenty miles from Hayes Landing on the Columbia, which is twenty miles from Golden, and covers the center of the Selkirk range, between Kootenay Lake and the Big Bend. In the neighborhood of the head waters of the Spillumcheen river, about thirty locations have been made this year. Mr. Hepburn has several fine claims here—the Bobby Burns and Chief of Selkirks. The ore is gray copper and galena, the quartz carrying considerable slate. The ledges are all large and well defined, and as far as could be judged are exceedingly valuable. Mr. Hepburn left for Nicola this morning, and will remain this winter developing several of his claims.

Major Rogers.

Major Rodgers, C.E., of Kicking Horse and Rodgers' Pass fame, arrived in the city last evening from Seattle, and is staying at the Driard. The Major looks both hale and hearty, and informed a Times reporter that his trip to Victoria and the coast was not in connection with any immediate railway scheme. He came over to have a square meal at the Driard. Newspaper men had made a great deal out of his visit to the coast last May about Jim Hills' Alaska Railway scheme, but there was nothing in it as far as he was concerned. The railway prospects were bright on the other side, notwithstanding the declaiming against land monopolies and the giving away of the public domain. The railway to Bellingham Bay was a certainty of the future. Were Victoria to secure connection with that, via Sasnich, and another ferry, it would be an incalculable value to the city. The Major knows nothing about Seymour Narrows plan, although he agrees that $500,000 would be a big inducement to any company. The Crescent Bay and Port Angeles lines were in the distance as yet, but they would come. He was glad to see that Victoria had improved wonderfully since he had the pleasure of being here before, and also to hear that the people had awoke to a sense of the requirements of the times. The city had nothing to fear from outside competition her position was secure and permanent.

Accident to a Miner.

Joseph Pichenuriui, an Italian, working in the No. 4 pit of the Wellington Colleries, met with a severe accident on Monday afternoon. When placing a half charge of giant powder in a hole with a tamping bar, the charge exploded. He was burned severely about the head, face and arms.

Pardoned.

Alfred Bradley, who was committed to the provincial gaol at last assizes for larceny, has been pardoned for good behavior. He was liberated to-day.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

A Poor Woman Strangles Her Children—Case Where Killing no Murder.

The Whitechapel Horrors—No Arrests Yet—Stage Robbers Disappointed.

Blue Springs, Nev., Oct. 3—The wife of Geo. Puffenbagh committed suicide this afternoon after having strangled her two children. She tore some clothing into strips and placed them around her children's necks and drew them tight until life was extinct. She then sent a bullet into her own breast, killing herself instantly. She left a letter addressed to her husband, in which she said she felt herself going crazy, and did not want to live any longer. She was afraid to leave her children.

STAGE ROBBED.

Florence, Ariz., Oct. 3—Two Mexicans stopped the stage near Dry Lake yesterday afternoon. They took the treasure box of Wells Fargo & Co., and the registered mail pouch going through from Globe. There were no passengers on the stage. The driver was relieved of $1, all he had. The Florence mail, containing a registered package with several thousand dollars in money, was not molested. The express box contained but little money

JUSTIFIED IN KILLING.

Memphis, Oct. 3—James Conley, the negro who shot and killed two intoxicated white men on Sunday for maltreating him, has been discharged from custody, the justice holding he was justified in killing his assailants.

WHITECHAPEL MURDER.

London, Oct. 3—The public subscriptions to the reward offered for the Whitechapel murderers now amount to over $10,000.

A BURGLAR ESCAPES.

San Francisco, Oct. 3—Frank Wheeler, who is serving a five years' sentence for burglary in San Quentin state prison, has escaped.

WILL FIGHT FOR BIG MONEY.

New York, Oct. 3—Richard Fox has cabled Christopher Clark, of the Police Gazette, that he has deposited $2500 in London and would deposit the same here to cover the challenge of the unknown to fight Jake Kilrain for $10,000. Fox says a syndicate is backing the unknown and all parties mean business. Fox is willing to increase the stakes to $20,000.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

San Francisco, Oct. 3—The higher eastern market had the effect of strengthening the local wheat market considerably this morning. The price rose to 176¾, which is 2½c better than yesterday's closing, and November closed at 169½, an advance of 1⅝c. The transactions were heavy.

Liverpool, Oct. 3—Wheat, strong; holders offer sparingly.—California, 8⅛s.

New York, Oct. 3—Wheat, 113 for cash, 115⅝ for December, 118½ for May.

Chicago, Oct. 3—Wheat, 113½ for October, 115 for November, 115½ for December.

Chicago, Oct. 3—The upward tendency and consequent excitement in the wheat market continues. At 11:30 this morning October had advanced to 113½, a rise of 9c over yesterday's closing, and November rose to 115¾, an advance of 9½c.

EXAMPLE FOR VICTORIA.

San Francisco, Oct. 3—The police this afternoon raided Platt's Hall pool rooms and arrested about two hundred men in the place. Gambling games known as "the clock game," was conducted there in violation of the law.

The trial of Mrs. Bertha, the Confidence Queen, was continued again to-day for another week.

HANGED HIMSELF.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 3—John J. Connelly, charged with highway robbery, hanged himself in the jail this morning with a towel.

FROM LONDON.

London, Oct. 3—There has been no arrests made to-day in connection with the Whitechapel murders. The police admit they have no clue.

Steamship State of Georgia, which left New York September 20th has not yet arrived at Greenock. Anxiety is felt over her non arrival.

EASTERN CANADA.

Montreal, Oct. 3—There is great distress at Moisie, a fishing village on the north shore, owing to failure of fisheries. Starvation is imminent.

Ex-Mayor Beaugrand has entered actions for libel against La Press La Minerve and the Star, former two for calling him a Free Mason and the latter for saying he appealed to prejudice.

Three inches of snow fell on the Grand Trunk in the vicinity of Methot's Mills, Que., to-day. It also fell to the depth of 3 to 6 inches in Western Ontario last night. Orchards damaged.

The Quebec West election case has been postponed till the 16th for hearing and proof. Negotiations in the mean time are going on for settlement.

RAILWAY ACCIDENTS.

Chicago, Oct. 3—By a collision on the Lehigh Valley line, near Packerton, Pa., the engines were wrecked, cars smashed, and a fireman fatally injured. Loss, $10,000.

The east-bound express at Byron, N.Y., jumped the track; five coaches were derailed; the porter was injured.

WHITECHAPEL MURDERS.

London, Oct. 2—The partially decomposed trunk of the woman found in the recess of the Thames embankment by the police to-day, was removed to the mortuary where it will be examined by experts to-morrow. The police have preserved the arms and head found in the Thames near Lambeth, and express a hope that they may fit the body, otherwise the evidence is established of two more murders having been committed, instead of one. The body is hideously putrified and bears every indication of having been mutilated several months ago. It is also evident it has never been interred. The sensation by the finding of the body is simply terrific. The police are as far as ever from getting a clue of any practical value in detecting the Whitechapel murderer, and the feeling of insecurity and consternation is thereby greatly enhanced. It is believed the murderer will resume his butcheries in view of his phenomenal success in eluding detection. The friction between the municipal authorities and General Charles Warren's fussy military methods are roundly denounced on all sides. The St. James Gazette closes an article, savagely criticizing General Warren's administration, with a prayer for a squad of New York detectives to give the London police a few lessons in the profession they have, apparently, unwisely chosen.

OLD WORLD SYSTEMS.

Paris, Oct. 2—Owing to the increase of immigration in France, President Carnot has signed a decree regulating the residence of foreigners already settled or those about to settle in France. The decree imposes obligations upon foreign residents to furnish declarations of their intentions, accompanied by documents to prove the identity, which cannot evoke a protest founded on the conventional engagements of France with other countries, as no fresh tax is levied and the regulations do not affect the business or pleasures of visitors. Present foreign residents are allowed one month in which to comply with the new decree. A disregard of the decree will involve police penalties irrespective of the government's right to expel offenders from the country.

AN EXPLOSION.

The registry office was thrown into a panic yesterday by an explosion of dynamite. Little damage was done. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the crime.

THE EXCLUSION BILL TO BE ENFORCED.

Washington, Oct. 2—The secretary of the treasury to-day notified the collector at the port of San Francisco by telegraph that the Chinese exclusion bill had passed, and giving a brief outline of its provisions. In concluding, the secretary says that the bill provides that "no certificates of identity shall hereafter be issued, and declares that such certificates heretofore issued are void and of no effect." This order will first effect the celestials on the Belgic, which is due to-morrow with several hundred on board. This afternoon the custom house people of San Francisco learned that 30,778 certificates are outstanding, as 68,636 which have been issued, 38,848 Chinese have come to America with certificates since 1882. It is reported that the Chinese six companies are preparing to import plenty of coolie labor over in the Canadian Pacific steamers and smuggle them in from British Columbia.

COMMITTED.

Berlin, Oct. 2—The examination of Professor Geffcken at Hamburg was closed to-day and the prisoner turned over to the High Court of Justice at Leipsic.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.

Special to The Times.]

New Westminster, Oct. 3—H. R. Holden, a native of England, aged 22, died at the Colonial Hotel, yesterday. He was a resident of Stave River for some time.

Tom Sirr, a well-known pioneer, was found dead in bed this morning at his place near Fraser mouth. He was 60 years of age and leaves a widow.

Robt. McMurphy fell from a building in course of construction this morning, a distance of 30 feet, and was seriously injured.

Mr. McTiernan has arrived from Mud bay and reports no smallpox among the Indians there.

THE FAIR GROUNDS.

Large Preparations—Exhibits Pouring in—Prospects of Success.

On visiting the agricultural grounds this afternoon, it was discovered that exhibits were pouring in from all parts of the country. Some very fine cattle from the Island districts are already on the grounds, and poultry, grain, fruits, and manufactures were making their appearance in large quantities. This evening extensive consignments will arrive from the mainland. One of the wealthy farmers of that part of the province is bringing down twelve head of cattle on the Rithet and Messrs Wells, Ladner, Kirkland and others will also arrive with large exhibits. The preparations at the grounds are very extensive. Eight hundred feet of shedding have been erected around a rectangular area on the south side of the hall, and another shed 100x30 feet has been raised on the side grounds opposite to the entrance from the park. One end of this building will be used for roots, &c, the other for shelter to carriages. The baby stand consists of a tier of four seats on the north side of the hall, extending from one end to the other. It will hold something less than 5000 babies. A refreshment booth is on the south side of main building. The decorations are complete. The grounds look clean and tidy. The men of C Battery went to work this morning and "scrubbed the deck and holy-stoned the cable," which made a big improvement in appearances. President Higgins and the committee are on the grounds directing affairs.

SPORTING NOTES.

Fulljames, the pugilist, who was recently killed in a prize fight in Dakota, was from Winnipeg. He is believed to have been struck with a slingshot.

LACROSSE.

The lacrosse match between Victoria and Vancouver takes place at Beacon Hill at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon. It is expected that this will be a fine contest.

The China Steamers.

The Duke of Westminster passed down from Vancouver at 1 o'clock to-day bound to San Francisco with 1800 tons of freight and 200 Chinese, having discharged 4000 tons at Vancouver.

The Batavia, which passed up at 3 a.m. yesterday, will sail for China with a full cargo and full complement of passengers, on Thursday night or Friday morning.

The steamship Danube is discharging a cargo of flour, from Portland, into the Batavia, and will load Victoria freight landed by the Duke of Westminster, arriving here about Saturday, afterwards proceeding to Portland for another cargo of flour for transhipment to the Duke of Westminster for China.

The Parthia is due on Saturday from China with a full cargo and passenger list.

FROM MAYOR GRANT.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—A poltroon who signed himself "Taxpayer," in this morning's Colonist, makes cowardly insinuations that cannot be mistaken as pointing to myself as a partner in Mr. Russell's frauds. I will adopt my own way of dealing with this cowardly thing, as well as certain other statements made editorially in the Colonist in respect to the same matter.

John Grant.

EDUCATION AND CRIME.

It seems almost a pity to disturb Mr. DUNSMUIR in the enjoyment of his favorite hobby, "that too much education is going to be the ruination of this country." Mr. DUNSMUIR, without doubt, conscientiously believes that education is hastening this country surely and certainly to the dogs, and for that reason THE TIMES is disposed to be charitable with him. With an apology, therefore, to the President of the Council and the E. & N. Railway, the following statement from an English paper is published: "Since compulsory education began in 1870, there has been a steady decrease in crime, both actual and relative to the population. The Judicial Statistics for 1887 are just published. The total commitments to prison were 6,887 fewer last year than in 1886."

CAPITAL AND LABOR.

Again the organ of our one man monopolist advocates that the people are in duty bound to submit to the development of our natural resources for the sole use and benefit of its lord and master, who endeavors to use the people as he does the Colonist and the Legislature, as a tool to perpetuate his monopoly, grind down the workingman, advocate the principles in the halls of our legislature that our working population should receive no education—that he is forever to be only a mere tool, a hewer of wood and drawer of water for our modern Pharoah, and remain content in that state of life to which it has pleased the Lord to call him. This catechism might have found favor amongst the middle, and even amongst the working classes in the dark ages, but it is scarcely a doctrine that will go down with the people of any country in this enlightened nineteenth century. Our modern barons, who build castles cemented with the sweat of honest labor, and who endeavor to ape the feudal times—who stays at nothing in order to satisfy their own avariciousness — must be taught that if they can purchase a depraved press they cannot purchase the voice of a free and enlightened people, who will not bend the neck to the yoke endeavored to be placed upon them. Capital has its duties. It is a trust, and woe betide the individual, in public opinion, who shamelessly seeks to use it for the purpose. It only remains for the long-suffering people of British Columbia to be true to themselves, their children, and their country, in order to root out the nest of vampires that is sucking their very life's blood.

ECONOMIC SCIENCE.

At a session of the British Association lately held at Bath, the subject of Economic Science was brought up for discussion on the Malthus theory. In Professor EDGEWORTH's paper on the subject, we learn, that in the healthy agricultural districts where mothers nurse their children the interval of births is two years, while in the city slums, where epidemic ravages the population, the interval was only twelve months. Ordinary pestilence, it is asserted, did not diminish the population but only weakened it. Health and duration of life tends, it is said, to diminish the number of births, which shows that as wages and means of livelihood increase, the pressure of population on the means of subsistence is diminished. A further advance of prosperity with a further increase of population was not objectionable. Mr. PARK HARRISON, who took part in the debate, advocated war as the great reliever to over population, and we are told that there are many worse things than a good war. A great cause of depression was the effect of a long peace. War, to a certain extent, diminishes the surplus population of the ranks which supplied the fine soldiers. Little wars, going on in various parts of the empire, he said, caused great suffering to our soldiers and the natives they were fighting against. While not favoring the idea of rushing incontinently into war, he argued that there should not be the extreme feeling which was spreading, that war was a horrible, uncivilized thing, it being a principle of honor amongst all nations from the remotest time to fight and die for home and country. He drew attention to the fact that the feeling of humanity at present prevailing, took great care and expense to enable some of the miserable specimens of humanity to survive, and increase that particular class which was the main element of the unemployed. Tenderness should not permit endeavors to save the lives of some of our miserable fellow-creatures, and such interference with the laws of nature, did much in perpetuating the survival of the unfittest. Other gentlemen took part in the lively debate, one of which laid the blame of early and unprovident marriages on the English poor law. The workingmen should be told that their position depended largely on their own conduct and practice in the matter; if they persisted in making unprovident marriages and bringing into the world large families disaster must overtake them. A gallant Surgeon Major, in a humorous way, said he was of opinion that early marriages did not produce large families. Idleness and drink were the chief causes of over population. The leisured class were the chief offenders in this line, the clergy being the greatest sinners, owing to having so little to do. It was a remarkable fact that clergymen generally have large families. Others were of the opinion that war took the best members of society. Some argued that commercial competition acted very much like war in the early days of the world's history. The strong, the competent, the mentally and physically efficient only succeeded. If there is a superabundance of population in the old country, British Columbia has ample room for all our fellow subjects who are able and willing to put their shoulder to the wheel and roll the chariot of Empire throughout the length and breadth of this great one land, where the hidden treasures of nature, or the bounteous harvests of the deep, and the giants of the forest await the advent of strong, sinewy arms to produce that wealth necessary for the support of a population. Here the toiler may enjoy the fruits of his labor. The harvest is truly great, but the laborers are few.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Queen's reply to the address adopted at the Pan-Anglican Synod, held in London in July, is published. The Queen says: It will ever be my anxious desire to promote all measures which may tend to maintain and extend the spirit of true religion. I earnestly pray Almighty God that He may bless your labors for an increase of Christian faith and the virtues it inspires in all quarters of the world.

A gentleman who has recently visited the Mormon settlement at Lee's Creek, states that the Mormons there have not relinquished their belief in regard to polygamy, but that they have no intention of practising it in violation of the laws of Canada. He describes them as being an intelligent and industrious class of settlers, and it is probable as time goes on their belief in the polygamous doctrine will die out.

No question about it, but it seems to be getting harder every day to live in this country. The tax gatherer comes round more frequently than he used to, and when he comes he is harder to get clear of. The Provincial Government piles on the agony. Coal is $10 a ton, which makes a cold shiver run down the backs of everyone but the coal mine owner. But worse than all, flour is $7.50 a barrel. The sharp rise in the price of wheat has caused a corresponding stiffening in flour and the probabilities are that it will not be any lower before next season. Everything seems to be increasing in cost excepting newspapers, which they are giving away.

Mr. Blaine passed through Ontario yesterday, traveling over the Michigan Central from New York to Detroit. At St. Thomas a delegation of citizens with a band of music presented their respects from the platform in front of the station. Mr. Blaine appeared from his car and said: "I feel some embarrassment in addressing a Canadian audience in the midst of the political campaign now in progress in the United States, through being earnestly interested in the Republican cause. I am too hale an American citizen to say anything against the Democratic President except upon the soil of my country. I can only say that I feel as do all the people of the Union, that the ties and sympathies between the United States and Canada are very strong. That both are more interested in the progress of the new world than of the old world. That as descendants of a common race, and representing in value at least three-fourths of the American continent, their relations ought to be intimate and close. Whether they will ever be closer will depend on Canada. Whatever movement towards that end may be made must come from her and be of her own volition." Here the train moved off to an accompaniment of music and cheers.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief. *

BASEBALL PHILOSOPHY

The Humorous Side of the Business—The Merits of the Clubs Compared.

(From our own correspondent.)

The tournament's "fitful fever o'er," we have resumed normal ways with mixed sensations of regret and pleasure. We regret the drying up of the streams of shekels which for three days flowed, and yet, we hail with pleasure the resumption of a life which if not distinguished by a "silver lining," at least relieves us of a heavy strain on both mind and body. Still, for all the sweets of a quiet humdrum existence, regular hours and small profits, it would be disingenuous not to say that a tournament once a month would about fill the bill. We could stand it. Money is the vehicle by which we achieve distinction, plenty to eat, and the greatest possible amount of happiness. The fever-tossed patient or the fretful invalid must derive unspeakable satisfaction, if not happiness from the thought of possessing the wherewith to render them independent of the world. I could never quite agree with Cassius that "he who steals my purse steals trash." Of course I am on to the sentiment of the thing, but the fact of society having set the stamp of scorn on poverty ordinary prudence would seem to say, never mind the good name my son, take the "trash," take the "trash," it covers a multitude of sins. Without wealth we are nobody. Nobody but a genius can afford to scorn riches. So while it is a relief to be rid of the bustle, and jaw incident to a tournament, we don't deny our hankering for gold, and repeat again that a tournament once a month would go a long way towards filling up a long felt financial want. It is rather late in the day to talk tournament. The nine days have passed in which wonders may be legitimately discussed. The tournament is now a memory simply, and to revive it is to do so at the expense of boring somebody. But there is nothing else to talk about save some weddings, and of these the honey-moons are waning. Ere long these happy pairs will have settled down to the realities of life, and recalling to themselves the sweet procedure of their wooing, blush and say, is it possible that during the awakening of loves' young dream we were such geese? She, eating her prosaic ham and eggs, or mayhap boiled dinner, will blush when accused of her whilom predilection for pickels, while he, on the strength of her allegation of having ransacked the poets for bright and tender sayings, will rear back on his dignity and declare that he is original or nothing; that bright eyes and red cheeks are inspiring, and that a man who cannot coin a pretty phrase under such circumstances is a dolt indeed. Therefore, with all deference to the lately made benedicts, and begging the pardon of those who may be bored by tournament talk, I will proceed to ventilate some impressions acquired during the visit of the knights of the bat among us. And another thing which prompts me to revive the subject: None of the various correspondents have given more than the barest outlines, which in communities where baseball is an old story would be quite sufficient, but in this province, where the game is in its infancy, is an omission excusable only on the ground of thoughtlessness. In the first place, I have learned, what I never believed before, that baseball is a game fit for men as well as boys. It calls for muscle, activity, quickness of eye and ability to decide on the instant. A moment's hesitation and the game is lost. From the moment the ball leaves the pitcher's hand, which it does with the velocity of a meteor, activity, precision, coolness and judgment are prerequisites. Alertness does not express it. The species of activity to be employed verges on the preternatural. Of course skill figures largely, but skill without the qualities above mentioned is valueless, inasmuch as the unerring throw of the ball, and the almost sure catch places a man hors de combat. Of the various nines assembled at Kamloops, the "Amities" seemed to possess the greatest aggregation of ball playing qualities. Besides being men of splendid physique their knowledge of the game is consummate, being shared by each member alike. Their strength is not fractional—that is not resting on any single individual. Their's is the united strength of nine, and while for the moment their opponents may gain advantage the immutable law of average finally turns the tide, and victory perches on their bats. In contradistinction to the Amities we have the Donalds, a good team. Among their members there are probably better players than the Amities, but as a whole they are deficient and prone to crankyness at untoward incidents. If, however, for another year the club remains intact, and practices diligently, it is an even bet that they will wrest the cup from the Amities. Their pitcher is unquestionably the best in the province; all they want is a catcher who can hold him, and perhaps one or two better batters. It is to be regretted that between the Amities and Donald's nine innings were not played instead of seven. The Donalds at the close of the seventh inning were getting down to their work, and were closing the gap which originated in their wild playing at the outset of the game. It is not to be supposed for a minute that the Donalds could have won, but taking the reputation and uniform excellence of the Amities into consideration had the Donalds played them a close game it would have given them courage to engage in future tussles, and have justified their propensity for bragging. The Truth in its last issue, while not as virulent as previously is still unfair. Whether to attribute this to ignorance or the want of something to say (for there is a paucity of locals in Donald) is a question. The editor himself seems harmless enough. Referring to the intention of the tournament committee to give the Donalds a champagne send off, as they did the Amities, he is extremely sarcastic, and withal amusing. He will learn in time that while Kamloops lays no claim to infallibility, Donald is the last place it would take advice from. As regards the faults of omission and commission, of which the tournament committee is accused, there is nothing to say further than it did the best it could with the light it had. Only one of the committee understood base ball, and his attention was distracted by other duties. None of the committee were sanguine enough to suppose that everybody would be satisfied. What was sought after was general results, and in this respect the tournament was a success. Next year, profiting by the experience of this, arrangements will be more perfect, and the prizes doubled. The committee, however, will never lose sight of the fact that the transaction is to be a purely amateurish affair, with the aim to encourage the best of all athletic games, and to afford to an isolated people a recreation at once profitable and interesting. IRVING.

AYER'S Sugar-Coated Cathartic PILLS.

If the Liver becomes torpid, if the bowels are constipated, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are invaluable.

For some years I was a victim to Liver Complaint, in consequence of which I suffered from General Debility and Indigestion. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills restored me to perfect health.—W. T. Brightney, Henderson, W. Va.

For years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than anything else, to my bowels. These Pills are mild in action, and do their work thoroughly. I have used them, with good effect, in cases of Rheumatism and Dyspepsia.—G. F. Miller, Attleborough, Mass.

Ayer's Pills cured me of Stomach and Liver troubles, from which I had suffered for years. I consider them the best pills made, and would not be without them.—Morris Gates, Downsville, N. Y.

I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice, and was so dangerously ill that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor.—John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebraska.

Last spring I suffered greatly from a troublesome humor on my side. In spite of every effort to cure this eruption, it increased until the flesh became entirely raw. I was troubled, at the same time, with Indigestion, and distressing pains in

The Bowels.

By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and, in less than one month, I was cured.—Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga.

I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made.—S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss.

My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at once began giving them small doses of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse. In a short time the bloody discharges stopped, all pain went away, and health was restored.—Theodore Ealing, Richmond, Va. ††

(From our own Correspondent.)

Vancouver, Oct. 1—Mr. C. C. Weldon, contractor for the North Arm road, was in the city on Saturday last, and he says that the road is slashed from end to end, about one half is grubbed and about one-third is graded. He has from 70 to 90 men constantly employed and expects to have the work completed by November 1st, if the weather continues favorable.

The Knights of Pythias in this city will give their first annual ball on Tuesday, October 30th, the second anniversary of Granville Lodge No. 3. Every effort will be put forth to make this ball a success. The opera house will be specially rearranged and decorated with Pythian ensigns and emblems. The music will consist of eight pieces under the management of Prof. Reynolds, and the supper will be the best that can be had.

The Water Works Company have erected temporary workshops on Hastings street near Westminster Avenue, and in the near future propose to build substantial brick offices, but the exact location has not yet been chosen. The laying of the water-pipes is giving employment to a great many men, and the work is being most energetically pushed forward, upwards of 10,000 feet having been already laid.

A scheme for the construction of a street railway is being concocted by our leading citizens, and already the greater part of the stock required has been subscribed.

About 5:30 last evening the Canadian Pacific Company's extra steamer, Duke of Westminster, 2,426 tons, Capt. W. Reynolds, steamed quietly into the harbor from the land of the rising sun, and at once glided alongside of the C. P. R. wharf, but owing to the quarantine regulations she was obliged to lie off in the stream till the Port Doctor and Health Inspector had made a thorough examination, which was not completed until after 10 o'clock at night. The Duke of Westminster left Yokohama at 5 a. m. on the 14th September, thus making the voyage in sixteen days and experiencing very fair weather. Her passenger list is as follows: First class—Mr. and Mrs. Wiederman, for Vancouver; Mr. B. C. W. Scott, Liverpool; J. C. Nicholson, London; W. Rae, R. Bourke, Liverpool; Mr. and Mrs. McFarland and two children; Rev. R. Wondcott, London; Mr. A. Lamb, Quebec. Steerage—One European and 252 Chinese, destined as follows: Twenty-two for B. C.; 7 for Seattle; 9 for Portland; 4 for New York, and 210 for San Francisco. Of those for B. C. 6 have certificates entitling them to land, but the other 16 have to pay $50 a head before they can do so. The Duke's cargo is the largest and most varied that has yet been brought into this port, and consists chiefly of tea, rice, silk, coffee, opium, and general merchandise. The total cargo consists of 67,844 packages, of 3,849 tons measurement, and valued at $47,822. About 800 tons of this will be shipped to eastern points via the C. P. R., about 300 tons to Victoria and Portland per S. S. Danube; the balance being destined for San Francisco and Puget Sound ports. The Duke of Westminster belongs to the Ducal Line and is chartered by the C. P. R. Company. She is a fine four-master, and of exceedingly large carrying capacity, being 420 feet in length. As soon as she has discharged her eastern and local freight she will proceed to San Francisco.

The tug Mamie, belonging to Messrs. Leamy & Kyle, which ran on the rocks on Texada Island a few days ago, is reported as still stranded. The tug Vancouver has gone with a scow to the spot to assist in getting her off.

Alderman McConnell returned from the east, where he has been spending several months with his friends. He looks well after his trip and is greatly pleased to get back to Vancouver, which delights him more than any place he has seen since he left. The town has grown so rapidly since he left that Mac had to get a real estate man to find his house for him.

Mr. W. D. Creighton's new yacht, the Hebe, was out for a trial trip on the Inlet yesterday. She is a trim little craft and sits the water like a duck. Her lines are very fine and some of them vastly different from those of the average boat seen in these waters. She is modelled after a clipper yacht in the east. Her length over all is 30 feet, keel 24 feet, beam eight feet six inches, and draught 3 feet 9 inches. She is sloop rigged and carries 193 yards of canvas. Many eyes beheld her yesterday as she skimmed over the water with a very light breeze, and many were the expressions of admiration which burst from the admiring crowd. Doubtless, Mr. C. would be pleased to match her against some of Victoria's famous yachts.

The tug Mastick arrived from Port Townsend to-day and towed the ship Earl Granville to sea from the Moodyville mill. For the first time since early in the season the Hasting's Mill is without a ship loading lumber at its wharf.

This afternoon our genial mail clerk, Mr. Joseph Thain, brought in with him from up the line a large assortment of game which he had the extreme satisfaction of "bagging" himself. Good for Joe.

It is said that the evening Herald, which suspended publication a short time ago, is not dead, but sleepeth, and that in a few days it will arise with renewed vigor to run with patience the race that is set before it. It is to be feared, however, that its nap will have proven as fatal to it as that of the hare in the race with the tortoise. The World is ahead of it.

In the City Council to-night a debate arose in regard to the burning of the debris, during which Ald. Humphries claimed that the Board of Works had given permission to have the logs burned on the ground:

Ald. Oppenheimer:—"The board never gave any such permission."

Ald. Humphries.—"You keep still and wait until I get through, then you can talk. You have a habit of talking me down, but I won't have it."

Ald. Oppenheimer.—"Excuses must be made for Ald. Humphries as he is like a good many others, he has a few teeth out in front and ——."

Ald. Humphries—"Don't you call me a liar or I'll crack your head."

Ald. Oppenheimer—"The trouble with Ald. Humphries is that he has been out getting several toddies."

Ald. Humphries (advancing in great excitement)—"You're a liar, and ——d liar.

His Worship—"Order, Ald. Humphries, or I shall have to order you out of the room." Order was eventually restored and the debate proceeded.

The new school to the south of False Creek is completed and will shortly be occupied. The West End school is also furnished and fully seated, but the architect, Mr. McCartney, desires to accept it from the contractor, claiming that the work has been slighted. This delay is very unfortunate for the children of the locality, who are eagerly awaiting the opening of the school. To-day a large number, thinking the school would be opened, came with their books and slates, but were compelled to go away disappointed. Even though the work may not be quite what the specifications demand, no one will deny but that it is far too good for the site the school occupies; for a greater quagmire and more undesirable spot could not have been selected by a blind man. He at least would have chosen dry ground. But here we have a school situated at the northeastern base of a hill on a swampy flat, which must necessarily receive all the obnoxious drainage from the neighboring slope.

The steamship Batavia returned from San Francisco this morning, bringing on her the very popular and influential Dr. J. W. McGuigan and his brother Tom, our blithe and genial City Clerk, who has been spending his vacation within the "Golden Gate." Tom looks well after his trip, as does also the doctor, and his bland smile was a pleasant greeting to his friends as he walked up the street.

A striking example of law conflicting with justice appeared here a few days ago in the case of Wm. Cargill vs. E. H. King. This was a claim for charges for horse hire against one Casey, which Mr. King had, in the presence of creditable witnesses, agreed to make good, if Mr. C would refrain from taking action against the creditor. But, lo! when Mr. Casey had quietly disposed of his business and effects, Mr. King refused to settle the bill and as the agreement between Messrs Cargill and King was not in writing, as the law required, the case was dismissed. Surely we may sigh for the days when a man's word was his bond and in the face of two or more witnesses every word would be established. X.

How He Advertised.

A gentleman living in a small city in the west, had inherited consumption from his father, and the doctor told him he must die. He stopped taking their weakening physic and tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In three months he was strong and well. The gentleman's neighbors knew how sickly he formerly was, and asked him to state in public how he had been cured. Had advertised to lecture on a certain evening, in the public hall, and there was a large audience present. This was his lecture: A picture of himself, before, and one after, he tried the remedy, and five empty bottles of Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He said nothing, but convinced his audience just the same.

THE ALLEGED DEFALCATIONS.

Further Investigation Into the Charge Against J. D. Robinson.

At 11:25 o'clock this morning the alleged embezzlement case was taken up in the Police Court before His Honor Justice Richards, Q. C.

Theo. Davie, Q. C., appeared for the prosecution, and S. Perry Mills, for the accused, who was present in court.

The court was delayed until 11:45 o'clock, to allow the prosecution to draw up another information which was sworn to by Sergt. Sheppard.

Mr. Davie called Mr. Partridge, but before he entered the witness box, Mr. Mills said the case was brought by the Corporation, and as it was alleged that the funds were embazzled from the Corporation they should prosecute. The learned gentleman read from Fisher's digest to show that the Corporation should prosecute, instead of bringing Sergt. Sheppard forward as prosecutor. Mr. Mills intended to show that his client was not guilty of the charge, and he would then have an opportunity to obtain redress from the Council. The assistant clerk of the Corporation, Mr. Partridge, should lay the information on behalf of the Mayor and Council.

His Honor said Sergt. Sheppard was a police officer and was competent to lay an information.

Mr. Davie said the Crown was setting this prosecution in motion. A complaint was made by the Corporation and the money was missing. In the regular course an officer was informed and Sergt. Sheppard set the machinery of the law in motion. If it was of any benefit to the defense, Mr. Davie would inform the defendant that the Corporation directed the officer to lay the information.

Mr. Mills—We want to know who laid the information.

His Honor—The Corporation ought not to be ashamed to acknowledge that they are prosecuting.

Mr. Davie—The Council had an informal meeting and adopted a resolution to prosecute.

Mr. Davie said he would go on with the embezzlement case.

Thomas John Partridge stated—I have been messenger and Water Collector for the city of Victoria for a number of years; I am acquainted with Mr. Robinson's handwriting; with the exception of what is written in red ink in the book produced the whole of the writing therein is in defendants hand-writing. Cannot recognize the book produced.

To Mr. Mills—I collected monies; paid all monies collected to Mr. Russell; had no stated time to pay in the money collected; the money was kept in the vault; Mr. Russell had a safe in the office in which he kept his books; lately Mr. Russell kept his books and money in the vault. Recently Mr. Russell said someone had the combination of the safe; Mr. Robinson did not know the combination and never opened the safe; Mr. Robinson has a safe in his office which is his personal property; he kept the books belonging to the corporation in his own safe and had no access to the vaults; the books were closed at the end of November. Mr. Robinson kept the books well posted up; he was clerk of the Police Court, Clerk of the Corporation and Secretary of the Cemetery. Mr. Robinson said that he was very busy and could not get his work up; the work had largely increased during the past year.

At this stage of the proceedings the court adjourned for lunch.

AFTER RECESS.

George Berridge—My occupation is accountant. I was engaged on the recent audit of the city books; I know J. D. Robinson; in the course of my duties I applied to him for books and received the Police Court and Cemetery books; each book marked 2 I received from Mr. Robinson about the middle of August; I was appointed in June; the book contains the moneys received by Mr. Robinson on account of Police Court fines and fees, and his record of moneys paid over, and the same with reference to Cemetery fees; up to Dec. 31st, 1887, the book shows that he had on hand the sum of $2,000, which was unaccounted for to the City Treasurer; that is an account of Police Court fines; the last payment was in December, when he handed over $430; he had on that date two thousand dollars which he did not pay over; I mean that on Dec. 31st he had $2430 and only paid over $430. When the book was handed to me by Mr. Robinson it was not in the condition as it is now; at that time it was not closed; apparently since that time it has been closed by Mr. Robinson; the book as closed by Mr. Robinson makes the same result as I arrived at; when we brought down our balance Mr. Robinson had not taken credit for the payments made to Mr. Russell since May 7th, 1887; we took these figures from Mr. Russell's cash book and brought out the same as Mr. Robinson did afterwards; at no time did this money appear as an asset due the Corporation; found no trace of it anywhere; according to the same record he had $170.75 belonging to the cemetery fees; on account of cemetery fees the last payment was $350 on December 31st, 1887. He had on hand besides this $170.75. This amount was not carried forward in any of the books as money due by Mr. Robinson.

To Mr. Mills—The books were not balanced on Dec. 31st; Mr. Robinson did not give himself credit for cash paid Mr. Russell; said nothing to Mr. Robinson; asked for information from Mr. Robinson and he gave us what was asked for; did not ask about the $2000 fines and fees; an item in the book was checked yesterday; the reason why it was not checked before was because when we asked for all the books we received only two; asked Mr. Robinson for all the books in connection with the police court; we received but two books; I don't know who owns the two books produced; I don't know what books the man keeps; he might keep a number of books in his own pocket; I checked $1000 yesterday from one of the books which was not before us at the time of the audit; found the sum of $1000 entered in the city charge book; before finding it in the city charge book we found it in Mr. Robinson's book and verified it; I cannot say whether the initials opposite the $1000 are in Mr. Robinson's handwriting.

Mr. Mills, at this stage of the proceedings, said the sum of $1000 was estreated in the Supreme Court.

Mr. Berridge continued—Mr. Russell's books are not written up; saw in Mr. Russell's books that Mr. Robinson received credit for the sum of $1000; this was entered in 1883; this was for the sum of $1000 received from the gaol; cannot say how much money Mr. Robinson paid in this year; Mr. Robinson paid only $100 from Sept., 1886, to January, 1887; during March, 1887, he paid $425; May, $350; June, $1000; July, $550; August, $300; October, $800; in December he received $420 and paid in $430, leaving a balance due on December 31st, 1887, of $2000.

Mr. Mills said he had evidence to prove payments to Mr. Russell this year but he did not intend to disclose that evidence until the proper time.

Mr. Berridge said he found no errors in Mr. Robinson's books; his accounts agree with entries in Mr. Russell's book.

Mr. Davie handed in the city by-law, which states that the Secretary of the Police Court and cemetery shall hand over all sums over $100.

Mr. Mills said he considered that there was no evidence of embezzlement. If His Honor thought the evidence did not clear his client without calling evidence, he would like to have it taken to a jury. If His Honor thought a prima facie case was made out he would be only too glad to prove the fallacy of the charges. There was a good reason why Mr. Robinson had the $2000 in his hands on Dec. 31, 1887. Mr. Robinson received $1000 of money estreated. Mr. Robinson handed the money to Mr. Russell. Shortly afterwards he received notice to hand the money over to the Provincial Government, and was ordered to do so by the Supreme Court. This was paid over by Mr. Robinson out of the fines and fees of the police court. The Council should have asked Mr. Robinson to make up his books, and every cent would have been accounted for. Instead of arresting the man they might have allowed him to clear himself. If Mr. Robinson was guilty it is hardly likely that he would surrender himself to the court. A guilty conscience makes cowards of us all, and the defendant courted an enquiry before a jury in order to clear his character before the world. This can only be done by sending the case to the Supreme Court. No evidence would be offered.

Mr. Mills asked whether the case would be dismissed if evidence was forthcoming to prove that Mr. Robinson paid all moneys to Mr. Russell.

His Honor said he did not know. It might make some difference.

Mr. Mills said he had receipts from Mr. Russell for the sum of $3,260, which are portions of receipts, the stubs of which can be found in possession of the City Council.

His Honor—Did not the Council ask for those receipts before Mr. Robinson was arrested.

Mr. Mills—Yes, but Mr. Robinson was suspended before the Council asked for the receipts, and he was condemned before the eyes of the public.

Mr. Davie—If these receipts had been handed in before Mr. Robinson's arrest most likely this case could not have been brought against the defendant.

Case still in progress. Mayor Grant had just concluded his evidence as we go to press.

LATER—It was decided to adjourn the case for one week.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

Battery Review—Echoes of a Cooking Man—Confession, Etc.

It put the Major in mind of old times to see a gallant old General, attended by a brilliant staff and the youth and beauty of the country, reviewing the handful of troops we have here, on this, one of the acknowledged strategic points of the empire. The company was small, very small, only some 22 file, and the marching, etc., should have been like a moving wall. But, then, we must consider that there were a number of recruits and all the year round casualties in the ranks, and that if there were any little deviation from the ordinary strict rules and exercises of military dicipline, they were only experiments. In the first place the field manœuvres of yesterday did not properly belong to a body trained as artillery, and in absence of the means to carry out their proper exercises, owing to neglect of the Minister of War, Major Peters endeavoured to give the Canadian public a treat for their money in the best way he could, and well they did it.

Now, look a here, you fellow of the Colonist, the Major is always very glad to have your assistance regarding the advocating of any of his ideas, but you should give him credit for them. You, as you usually do, merely echoed his themes, as you did yesterday and to-day, which has been the burthen of his song for the past week or so. Why don't the Colonist throw the blame on the proper shoulders, those of the Minister of Militia? The Times ventilated the magazine question only the other day. For goodness sake, let us have something new, were it only for a change.

The Colonist, in an item yesterday on "Volunteer inspection," when it threw out the hint to the gallant General about the discourtesy of Sir Adolph a year ago, in leaving the grounds before the review was over, insulted a brave old soldier who learned his duty on many a well fought field.

There will, in all likelihood, be another circus at the city hippodrome this evening, free seats and plenty of dead heads to witness the "cocking main." Although it is not Sunday, still the "main" will be fought. The "spurs" are well sharpened, and altho' there may be some old hens "cackling" with "spurs" on, the fight will be well maintained.

Modern newspaper humorists in eastern cities do not attribute very honest motives to aldermen, or plumbers, and as the Major, whatever his failing may be, and bad as he is when he crosses swords, sticks or pencils with anyone, they must be honest, and gentlemen as well. The Major has in younger days "spurred" as good and as game a "Cavan black red" as ever entered a pit. The "spurs" were made by the famous Tim Reilly, of Carrigallen, warranted to rip from trouth to tail. Since then he has learned the use of a more powerful "ripper," a harmless looking instrument enough. Its wounds are deep and hard to heal, but it has one great recommendation, it never pierces the roofs of private houses, nor willingly hurts the private feelings of anyone. If it did, then the Major would cast it from him forever. THE TOWN MAJOR.
